

COMANCHE NATION HOUSING AUTHORITY

“MONEY MANAGEMENT FOR YOUNG ADULTS”

FRIDAY
AUGUST 9, 2019
1pm – 3pm

Money Management for Young Adults

The Comanche Nation Housing Authority will be hosting a Money Management class for young adults ages 16 and up. This is a free class offering guidance tools in helping young adults understand budgeting and basic loan information. Participants will learn how to develop a budget, track spending and learn the basics of household budgeting and decision – making about needs and wants.

Participants will learn about savings, how to develop a savings plan, basic loan information, credit and how to build good credit.

Through this class, participants will learn how their decisions impact their ability to live the life they want.
